AGENDA ITEMS:

1. Keith Allison, residing at 5841 Houghten, appeals the decision of the animal control officer rejecting his permit for chickens on his property.

Present to answer questions from the committee were Keith and Kyle Allison.

Kyle Allison addressed the Board and stated that he is raising chickens for the Oakland County 4-H Youth Program. The chickens are kept in a 12' X 6' fenced and couped area in the rear of their 100' X 270' property at 5841 Houghten. He admitted that he does have one rooster that presents a noise problem. A privacy fence was erected in an effort to decrease the noise.

The Board explained that since the Allison's property did not meet the $\frac{3}{4}$ acre requirement, they were unable to make a favorable ruling on the appeal.

Resolution # AC2004-09-008

Moved by Viola

Seconded by Petrulis

RESOLVED, that the decision of the animal control officer rejecting the permit application to allow chickens on the property of Keith Allison, residing at 5841 Houghten, be upheld.

ITEMS FOR REVIEW:

Review of Chapter 75 (Pet Shops) and Chapter 90 (Animals) was not conducted.

Brian Donovan (B & B Management Group) and Tina Adle (Nelson Properties) were present at the meeting. Mr. Donovan stated that Petland has decided to not move into the Cambridge Crossings store location, but he still has interest in the review and revision process of the pet shop ordinance.

Mr. Donovan and Ms. Adle plan to attend the next meeting.

The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 14, 2004 in Conference Room C.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15 p.m.
